Message from the President:

Dear Guild members and friends,

It takes everyone's help to have an event like the Wellsprings Gala. I cannot thank all of you, who worked so hard, enough. The gala co-chairs were Ginny Kazmierczak, Mary Hall and Sue Clark. Some notables are: Mary Hall, star of table decor. The auction room crew was Peggy Anderson, Madeline Sabanos, Rosemary Bach, Kelly Cuevas and Ceci Sanchez. Jerry Kazmierczak our chief computer whiz was assisted by Mike Chow and thanks to Gus Darino and Mary Hall for helping with checkout. I thank everyone who brought in donations. It can't happen without the items to bid on. Sister Rita and Sister Justin are to receive The Wellsprings Humanitarian award, which will be a fountain to be installed at the village. This is something Sr. Rita and Sr. Justin have wished for, for quite some time.

We are going to need donations for the Christmas gifts for residents of Wellsprings Village. These can be brought to the office, or meeting or we can arrange pick-up.

As you see in Save the Date we have some wonderful events around the corner.

Invite a friend to a meeting. We would love more women to join us in helping Wellsprings fulfill its mission.

Mary Ann Geist

The Sister Justin Project

Sister Justin's nephew, Chris Farinella, and great-niece, Laura Jackson, are writing a book telling Sister Justin's story of her life and Wellsprings.

Profits from the book will benefit Wellsprings.

You can help by sharing an anecdote about Sister and how she touched your life.
